

For Mothers Dear, We Give You Praise

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

1) For mothers dear, we give You praise,
Who brought us through our childhood days,
Who carried us when we were small,
And held us close when we did fall.

2) Within her womb You formed my heart;
You gave my life its love born start.
You placed me in her warm embrace,
And, in her arms, showed me Your grace.

3) From morning dawn to setting sun,
She helped me learn to walk and run;
She tucked me into bed at night,
And helped me learn both wrong and right.

4) Each Sunday morn she would then bring
Me to Your house to pray and sing,
To hear Your word and see the cross
On which Your son did suffer loss.

5) Throughout my life she has been one
Who taught me all about Your son,
And how he died, and rose again,
To cleanse me from my guilt and sin.

6) And so, today, I lift You high,
And I will praise You 'til I die,
For giving me, sent from above,
My precious mom, Your gift of love.
