

The God Who Was, and Yes, Still Is

Text: Hebrews 13:8

By Rev. John C. Stennfeld

Tune Meter: CM

Suggested Tune: Dundee

(Written for the 150th Anniversary of St. John's Lutheran Church, Buckley, IL)

The God who was, and yes, still is,
And evermore will be,
Will guide us through our future days
Unto eternity.

We thank and praise Him here today,
And have throughout our years,
Through times of joy and happiness,
And yes, through many tears.

Regardless of what test we faced,
He's always been the same,
And by His grace we've always known
Salvation in His name.

So may we leave a legacy
For all who follow here,
To build their lives on Christ alone,
And always hold him near.

And should we meet uncertain times,
And even suffer loss,
May we e'er trust, and always know,
We're victors through the cross!

"Singing Thru The Scriptures"

©2023 Rev. John C. Stennfeld